Re: BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc.'s Tariff for Implementation of Intrastate Directory Assistance Charges
Docket No. 99-00391

Dear Mr. Waddell:

By way of the attached letter, BellSouth is filing revised tariff pages which address the concerns raised by Director Kyle during today's conference. See §A.3.13.2.A and A.3.13.2.B. These revised pages reflect the discussions BellSouth had with the Tennessee Regulatory Authority Staff following this morning's conference. The revised pages also reflect an effective date of July 28, 1999 for the tariff. BellSouth furnished a copy of the revised language to the Consumer Advocate Division this afternoon and asked General Williams for his comments. As of this writing, BellSouth has not heard from General Williams.

Very truly yours,

Patrick W. Turner

A3. BASIC LOCAL EXCHANGE SERVICE

A3.13 Directory Assistance Service

This service is a Flex-Price service and is regulated under terms and conditions as described in A2.3.26 of this Tariff.

A3.13.1 General

- A. The Company furnishes Directory Assistance service for the purpose of aiding customers in obtaining telephone numbers.
- B. When the Company receives a 1-411 dialed call and the caller provides a state, city and name, the Company will either: (T)
1. provide the listed and available telephone number(s) requested, or
 2. apprise the caller that the number(s) cannot be provided because the listing(s) is private (non-published), or not available in BellSouth's database.
- C. Directory Assistance does not provide telephone numbers associated with private (non-published) listings but does furnish numbers for semi-private (non-listed) listings. (T)

A3.13.2 Application of Rates, Exemptions and Call Allowances

- A. No charge applies for the first six (6) calls per billing period month requesting listing information for lines located within the state of Tennessee. This call allowance applies per individual subscriber line, MultiServ[®] or MultiServ PLUS[®] service main station line, PBX trunk line or dormitory communication station line or for the first call per month per Centrex, ESSX[®], or Digital ESSX[®] service station line. (N)
- This call allowance is not transferable between separate accounts, even for the same customer. A call allowance unused during the monthly billing period will not be credited for application to a Directory Assistance call made in a later billing period. (N)
- B. Subscribers who have applied for and received Company certification that either the subscriber or a person living at the subscriber's residence on a permanent basis is unable to use a telephone directory due to a visual or physical disability which can be confirmed by a physician, appropriate group, or agency are exempt from charges for Directory Assistance calls when requesting listing information for lines located within the Company's NPA/LATA Directory Assistance serving area for the originating line. Written confirmation must be provided to the Company for this exemption to apply. Application procedures may be obtained by calling the local business office. (N)
- This exemption is applicable exclusively to calls made by the individual certified to be visually or physically disabled from the subscriber line assigned to the subscriber who has applied for and received such Company certification, or in the case of a business employing disabled persons, from the line assigned to that individual. Usage will be monitored by the Company and is subject to review and investigation. Certification will be verified periodically. Confirmed, inappropriate use of this exemption could result in its removal. (N)
- C. Residence subscribers who have applied for and received Company certification that either the subscriber or a person living at the subscriber's residence on a permanent basis is 65 or more years of age are exempt from Directory Assistance charges when requesting listing information for lines located within the Company's NPA/LATA Directory Assistance serving area for the originating line. Written confirmation must be provided to the Company for this exemption to apply. Application procedures may be obtained by calling the local business office. (N)
- This exemption is applicable exclusively to calls made by the individual certified to be 65 or more years of age from the residential subscriber line assigned to the subscriber who has applied for and received such Company certification. Usage will be monitored by the Company and is subject to review and investigation. Certification will be verified periodically. Confirmed, inappropriate use of this exemption could result in its removal. (N)
